The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

Thanks for your kind invitation to be a CIA Guest Speaker on March 14, 1978. Regretfully, I must take a rain check at least until 1979. My agreement to head a special study for Harold Brown on resource management in the Defense Department, which is to be done as part of the President's Reorganization Project, has put me in such an overload condition that I just can't take on any more extras.

I'm flattered to be asked. Perhaps another time.

Warmest cheer for the holiday season.

Best regards,

Dear Don,

My colleagues in intelligence and I extend a cordial invitation to you to discuss "New Approaches to Analysis" as CIA Guest Speaker on Tuesday, 14 March 1978, at 3:00 p.m., in the CIA Headquarters auditorium at Langley, Virginia.

The CIA Guest Speaker Program brings to CIA employees and guests from other agencies of the Intelligence Community the viewpoints of leading scholars, government officials, and other public figures on areas of concern to the Intelligence Community. It consists of a formal lecture of approximately 45 minutes followed by a 30-minute question period. The Guest Speaker honorarium is $500 in addition to round-trip, coach air transportation.

If 14 March is not convenient for you, we would be happy to discuss an alternative date. Our program runs on the second Tuesday of the month. Our Special Programs Officer, [redacted] will be pleased to discuss any detail of the arrangements with you. She may be reached on [redacted]

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
